our staff ...

LIBBY FRIEDMAN: Camp Director. Libby, a certified camp director by the State of CT, is assistant director of the Ammerman Center for Arts & Technology at Connecticut College and has worked at Mystic Seaport & New London Landmarks. She received a B.A. in art and art history from Connecticut College. This is her 14th year at Arts Camp.

KATE STEPHENSON MCDONALD: Assistant Director/Scholarship Coordinator. Kate is very excited to join the incredible staff of Arts Camp as scholarship coordinator and assistant director. Kate is an adjunct professor at Mitchell College and SCSU and has worked with children and teens for more than 10 years - including three years with Waterford Youth Services Bureau. Kate received her BA from Connecticut College and her MA from SCSU. She has always loved working with kids and has been involved in the arts since her first dance class when she was 7. She looks forward to being a part of Arts Camp 2011.

JEANNIE WILLIAMS: Dance. Jeannie is the Chair of the Fine Arts Department at Pine Point School in Stonington, CT where she has taught dance and creative movement for the last 31 years. She also directs and choreographs the annual musical at both PPS and the Weekapaug Summer Theatre Camp in RI. She performs as a modern dancer and enjoys choreographing for herself and others. This is Jeannie's 10th year at Arts Camp.

JEFF KERR: Musical Theater. Jeff is the Director of Vocal Music and Music Technology at Bacon Academy in Colchester, CT and is also the Director of Music and Choirs at the United Congregational Church in Newport, RI. He has been a music educator for 17 years, and has taught at all levels in MA, RI & CT. Jeff is also a performer and has performed with The Jamestown Community Theatre, Operafest and the Tanglewood Festival Chorus. This is Jeff's 7th year at Arts Camp.

MARIA IACO: Art. Maria has taught art at Pine Point for 26 years. She is involved in taking art outside the classroom walls, and loves exploring education and arts opportunities with different community groups. This is Maria's 7th year at Arts Camp.

MONIQUE NEE: Musical Theater. Monique earned a Masters in Education and a BA in Music. She has had a variety of jobs ranging from radio, cruise ship entertainment, acting, and television host to news reporter. She enjoys teaching music to young children. Monique is an Emmy award winning reporter and won best supporting actress at the NY Int'l film festival. She has taught music at various schools in Southeastern CT including New London and Groton Public Schools. This is Monique's 5th year at Arts Camp.

CAROL GLYNN: Circus Arts. Carol Glynn is a writer, performer, and CT Master Teaching Artist who works with in dozens of K-12 classrooms each year. She has been awarded the Distinguished Residency Artist Award by the Connecticut Alliance for Arts Education. Her extensive work with the Penny Ante Theater, Creative Arts Parenting Programs, STAR (Support Those At Risk Teens), Prevention Players, and other social organizations has lead her to performing and teaching in places as diverse as New York City's Lincoln Center for Performing Arts and the Connecticut State Prison System. Author of "Learning On Their Feet" published in the US and Australia, and the featured presenter in the kinesthetic DVD series, Carol Out of the Box, she presents keynote speeches and seminars internationally. This is Carol's 2nd year at Arts Camp.
